To help you promote the conference, below is a short description of the program.

Friday, June 24th: 6th Annual Finding Your Inner Leader “Aha!” Conference: Leading Across Communities!

Kingsborough Community College, CUNY, 2001 Oriental Blvd, Brooklyn, NY 11235), 9:30am-5pm plus seaside dinner 5pm-6pm. This year’s conference, in addition to addressing how to be a leader in your own organization, will highlight how to attract and retain followers across diverse communities when promoting your organization’s health goals, visions, and initiatives. Experts and local leaders will discuss and provide specific tips and techniques about how to recognize and respond to the different leadership expectations, needs, and requirements of multiple communities or community sub-groups. Enjoy rousing opening comments on Leading Across Communities by our dedicated and passionate Deputy Borough President Yvonne Graham and the always insightful and “exciteful” Richard Gitlin. Become inspired by this year’s panel of Courageous Leaders. Network (or walk along the beach) during lunch, and then sink your teeth into two practical information-filled workshops on how to lead communities of people of different ages/generations, types of insurance, culture and ethnicity, and gender and sexual orientation; as well as communities of people who are differently-abled; and men and women in uniform. The conference is co-sponsored by Kingsborough Community College, the Public Health Association of New York City, and the Brooklyn Borough President’s Office and is supported by many local organizations (see www.phanyc.org/events for growing list). Continuing education credits will be available for Certified Health Education Specialists (CHES) and those holding the Certified in Public Health (CPH) credential. Check back for more information regarding continuing education as we get closer to the meeting. Continuing education credit for other professions being explored. Great rates – special Early Bird discount until June 22.
